FROM THE PASTOR...

Feast of the Sacred Heart - 2010

Not only is June the month of the Sacred Heart, but it is our Parish Patron as well. As early as 1915 Pope Benedict XV in a letter to Fr. Mateo, concerning the Enthronement of the Sacred Heart in the home, wrote: "Nothing is more suitable to the needs of the present day than your enterprise."

What was his "enterprise" which was so important for that time? For Fr. Mateo the theological virtues of faith, hope and love were basic to Christian family life. For him Faith was the foundation of all spiritual and apostolic life. Only the person who drew near to Jesus to be taught and enlightened would learn to know him. Prayer was the indispensable means of drawing near to Jesus, so that our hearts could become like his.

Hope, he described as loving confidence in God. Jesus showed his love for sinners, the outcasts and the rejected in so many ways in his earthly life that no one could fear him because of unworthiness. Here are many, wrote Fr. Mateo who think it is very difficult to be saved. He on the contrary believed that it is difficult to be lost. To do so we must break loose from the Savior's arm and the citadel of redemption which is His heart.

For Fr. Mateo, Love was truly the greatest gift: though love God dwells in us and we in Him. "God is Love, and whoever lives in love lives in God and God lives in him". The love of God is "the source of the incarnation and of Christ's salvific work. The incarnation is, as it were, a 'humanization' of the love of God. The love of God has taken on the form of human love in the person of Jesus. For Jesus, this love of God is the 'Heart of Jesus', the center of all his actions and his attitudes which he expresses in the Gospel." Speaking of God's love and our response, Fr. Mateo wrote: "There is no doubt that the first and most adorable of his rights is that of being loved; and at the same time He has a great longing for our love..."

Fr. Mateo sought to make the home a truly "domestic church". "The moments we devote to God in our parish church, he said, are few yet most of our religion is limited to those rare moments, and when we return home we do not find the Lord there for us." "We live struggle, suffer and most likely die in our own homes. It is there that we ought to live in close fellowship with Jesus." Through the Enthronement of the Sacred Heart families come to recognize the Lord who is already present there and through this recognition he becomes a part of the family and guides it in its daily life and direction.

The Enthronement ceremony itself is a one-time event, but what the commitment signifies is for a lifetime. Incorporated into the Church through the living waters of baptism, sanctified by the sacrament of matrimony and nourished by the frequent reception of the Eucharist, the members of the Enthronement family, individually and collectively, make a public commitment to strive for the sanctification of the family and the transformation of society.

When you are ready for the Enthronement in your home, please contact the parish office.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE...By Bud Ozar

In today's gospel reading, Jesus just sat down to eat and was confronted with a dilemma and a sobbing woman. Why do rough situations always pop up at meals? We need to learn a lesson from Jesus who used this situation for compassion, understanding, discussion and forgiveness. Meals can be more than self-absorbed eating.

WE AS A COMMUNITY

Welcome into the Body of Christ Genevieve Anne daughter of Mark and Caroline Bain, Khloe Rebecca, daughter of Glen and Jamie Kaup who were initiated into the Christian Mystery through Baptism on June 6th.

Extend our Sympathy and Prayers to the family and friends of Henry J 'Hank' Lussem Jr. whose funeral we celebrated this past week.

Congratulate Mark Stavenger and Jennifer Sandquist who entered the Sacrament of Matrimony on June 5th.

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION:

The Eucharistic Procession on Corpus Christi Sunday was a wonderful testimony to the importance of the Blessed Sacrament to our Catholic faith. A special thank you to all who participated. Mother Teresa said, "I wouldn't be able to work one week if it were not for that continual force coming from Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament." For open hours at the Adoration Chapel call Theresa at 226-0838 or Mary at 225-6001.

INTERCESSIONS FOR LIFE:

For all priests as we approach the end of the Year for Priests: that they will be guarded in truth and love by our Blessed Mother and always have the strength to stand in the defense of life from conception to natural death; We pray to the Lord:
